SENIOR HISTORY

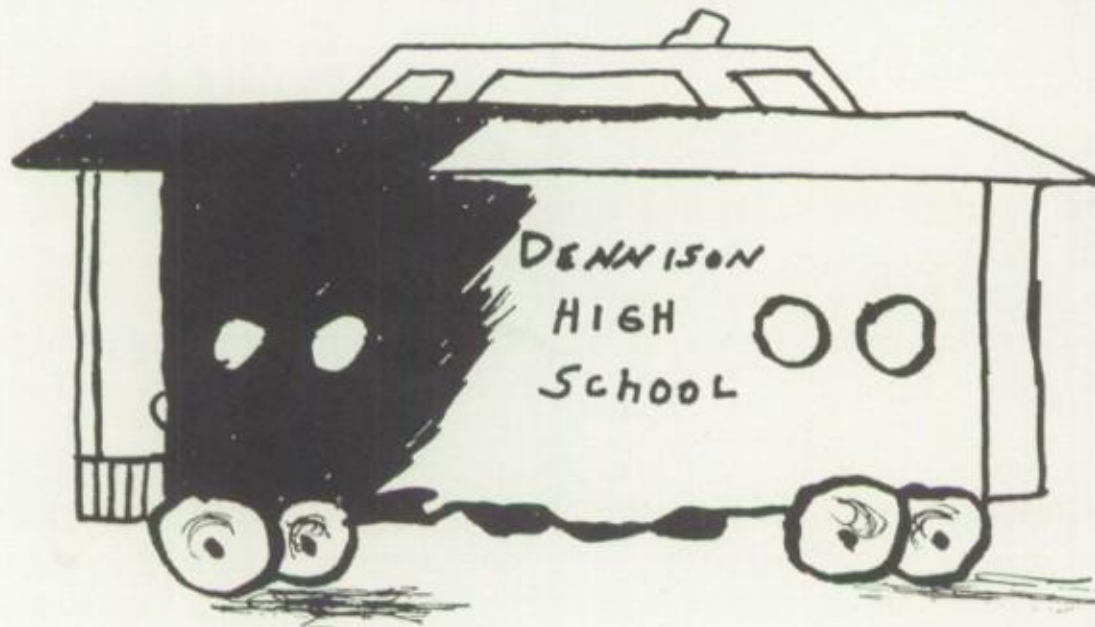

*I*N 1950, we were very eager, but green freshmen; 65 of them to be exact. We were all ready to get into the "swing of things," high school activities, games, etc. Ah! Yes, it was new to us, but we got off to a good start. Violet Soulsby was elected freshmen attendant and Arlene Stier was a majorette in the band. Lois McCluskey enjoyed the honor of being President of this class.

Our sophomore year really hit the high-lites. It was this year that Betty Jean Fulton was chosen as the Queen's attendant and a few of our boys started their sports enthusiasm. Also Violet Soulsby was elected cheerleader. Shilling was elected class Pres. Slowly, but surely we were coming into our own.

During our Junior year, which we called our "Turning Point," we were starting on our own at last. This year many of our boy's names appeared on the sports pages. Some of these are: O'Hara, who topped E.C.O.L., Moody, Murray, Huston and Cummings. Soulsby and Arnold were elected as members of the Nat'l. Honor Society. Arlene Stier still held the position as Sec. of G.A.A. for the second consecutive year. Violet Soulsby was moved into head position as cheerleader. Jean Reed was elected Queen's attendant this year. Our Junior-Senior Prom was a big step and then we presented our highly successful play, "Let Me Grow Up."

And now as we look toward graduation we find that time has gone by fast. Larry Shilling won the Science award this year and was elected as a member of the Nat'l. Honor Society, along with Stier and Maitland. Don Moody and Dick Cummings were elected as players on the E.C.O.L. All-Star Football Team. Our class play, "I'm a Family Crisis," proved to be just as successful as in our junior year. Arlene Stier was elected Queen and Jean Reed her attendant. Although we want to say that we could not have attained this great height, if it had not been for the wonderful parents, teachers and principal along our way who have encouraged us with untiring strength.

MAGAZINE SALES STUDENTS

THIS year a magazine selling contest was sponsored by the Crowell-Collier Publishing Company. Eddie Price, a sophomore won first place in the school and David Hooker was second. The trophy for the highest classroom shuttled back and forth, but finally stopped in the Senior Homeroom. The Junior and Senior classes received a percentage of their sales.

HI-LITES

A GAIN this year the Hi-Lites Club was organized. It is under the direction of a new faculty member, Mr. Joe Winters. This club is composed of a group of regular contributors to the HI-LITES column which appears weekly in the daily paper, THE EVENING CHRONICLE. Without any class credit, these students have given their time and efforts willingly and freely and made the HI-LITES a success for the fourth consecutive year. Typists for this year have been, JoAnn Hunter, Thelma Haas and Eleanor Cervellini

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

*M*R. Harmon is sponsor of a new club this year, called the F. T. A. The members consist only of Seniors. These girls and boys take charge of classes whenever a teacher is needed or is absent. Some of the students in this group planned to make a future of teaching, therefore this club can give them some experience in how to handle a classroom period.

STUDENT COUNCIL

*T*HE Student Council, under the guidance and supervision of Mr. Stocker, has helped in many worthwhile projects this year. The council has aided in preparation of the Homecoming Game, had charge of the Mom and Dad night, finished selling book covers, and is looking forward to selling pop corn balls.

The Council was established five years ago at D. H. S. and has since that time aided the students in settling any arousing questions concerning new improvements for our school.

RADIO CLUB

THESE students were called on to represent Dennison High School at W.J.E.R. on the Uhrichsville Hour. Their time and effort given to this club is well worth-while. They received no high recognition, but were willing and ready whenever they were needed. Their program concerned the passing of the "3 Mill Levy."

PRINCE OF PEACE CONTEST

FOR the fourth time, D. H. S. has taken part in the Prince of Peace Declamation Contest sponsored by the Ohio Council of Churches. This contest is designed to promote world peace and is open to all students regardless of religion.

The contestants, coached by Mr. Winters presented their speeches at the Dennison Methodist and Park Christian Churches in November. "K" Herron and Josephine Jones were judged the winners and Thelma Haas as the alternate.

"K" and Josephine then went on to try for the county contest in December.
